

We sell beauty in the form of high quality flowers from high quality sources in addition to our own 400-acre farming operations in Oceanside and the Carlsbad Flower Fields. Our job is to make sure that your customers get the best flowers at the best value so that every sale is a beauty. Our bouquets and bunches bring novelty and flair.

For decades our family and team members have tirelessly grown and cared for flowers. Innovation has been a main ingredient in our nearly 100 years of operations. For example, Mellano & Company was the first grower in CA to begin precooling flowers to ensure that they arrive in as good of condition as they left our farm. Meticulous growing and beautiful California coastal climate make for a powerful combination.

As both a grower and wholesale distributor of flowers we don't just talk "beauty without compromise", we live it. Every order matters! Every event, every gift, and every token of love are made better with the beauty we bring to market.

- We grow and harvest 60,000,000 stems per year!
- Large cooling capacity to ensure quality in each box.
- Our commitment to sustainable environmental practices is validated by the BloomCheck certification standard.
