1	Not enough people visiting the booth. Networking was good. Need broader spectrum of growers. If always in FL you might consider discounting CA Growers to get more to attend.	10/31/2018 2:28 PM
2	Those who did not attend really missed out this year!	10/31/2018 10:58 AM
3	We sell hard good Floral Boxes and it seems the people that attended were Greenery buyers not hard goods.	10/31/2018 10:21 AM
4	there was not enough product displayed and there were not enough suppliers	10/26/2018 12:39 PM
5	I thought the panel with all the country to be good; however the seminar with the trends was very poor and a waste of time for me.	10/26/2018 11:22 AM
6	This was my first year attending and I had a great time!	10/23/2018 7:55 PM
7	The presentations where of great value to me, next year I'll have a tabletop as well. I missed some important figures in the game because I did not had a TT.	10/23/2018 3:17 PM
8	International Panel (Jim Daly) was outstanding. As table top companyNEED MORE WHOLESALERS	10/22/2018 3:26 PM

9	Appreciated the focus on getting wholesalers to attend. The sessions were very well done and having the table top room closed during the sessions and food in the sessions really helped. As a table top vendor previously, you missed the sessions because you didn't want to loose and opportunity to speak with a potential customer.	10/22/2018 3:25 PM
10	Could have used a little more focused educational sessions I believe.	10/19/2018 1:36 PM
11	could not attend. Business is just too robust in October	10/19/2018 12:51 PM
12	It's a great place to network with industry peers and to catch up on industry specific current events. The conferences were very interesting except the last one in the last day. I'm not sure that it caters so much to the WFFSA crowd. I thought it was more content geared towards SAF.	10/19/2018 12:47 PM
13	There were not enough people attending, felt empty at times	10/19/2018 12:20 PM
14	Buyers do not stay at the conference venue.	10/19/2018 12:13 PM

8	Large cities with an excellent convention center.	10/22/2018 1:25 PM
9	I'm not a fan of Miami (being a west coaster) but I do understand it's the only reasonable option.	10/19/2018 8:29 PM
10	I think that if it was not in Miami less people would attend as most companies are based in Miami and more of there staff can attend. I'm sure this hurts trying to attract wholesalers from other areas of the country however, and more wholesalers are who needs to attend to benefit the growers and suppliers.	10/19/2018 5:56 PM

12	This is probably the most central location for the industry plus people can learn about logistics. Doing it someplace else would remove the opportunity to learn how flowers are moved through the supply chain (at least seeing it in action).	10/19/2018 12:47 PM

14	I think Miami is a relevant location. The hotel is not ideal. I think a cleaner hotel would be better.	10/19/2018 12:17 PM

8	more wholesalers or customers attending, or at least visiting the table top	10/26/2018 11:16 AM
9	better location in Miami	10/26/2018 11:14 AM
10	Work to make wholesalers more keen on the introduction of new varieties to improve their sales chances breaking a vicious circle in the market that is difficult to break only by breeders.	10/22/2018 3:29 PM
11	More wholesale operations AND more personnel from each wholesale operation	10/22/2018 3:26 PM
